

5213-B French I B - Travailler en français en entreprise 1 B, 3 cr

Code	5213-B	Validity	01.01.1950 -
Name	French I B - Travailler en français en entreprise 1 B	Abbreviation	French I B
Credits	3 cr	Date of expiry	10 years
Type	Language studies	Subject	520 Studies in Languages and Business Communication: French
Kind	Course	Hours
Study right		Grading	points (0-100), passed
Recommended time

Organisation Languages: French, Helsinki

Description

Course Description	This course has obtained students top evaluation. The course starts CEFR level A1.1. The target level is CEFR A1.2 (Basic user). The course is given in French and English (to explain e.g., grammar, contrastive elements or lexis when needed). It alternates with meetings in class, homework and online studies and exercises. It focuses on: simple professional situations by telephone or mail organize a business trip interact about daily professional activities
Learning Goal	You have the language skills to handle simple every-day and basic professional situations in French.

After completing the course, you will be able to	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• write a simple email and a text message about every-day life and work life</li> <li>• compare public transit; choose and buy a ticket</li> <li>• express yourself in a hotel to obtain information</li> <li>• distinguish intercultural habits at work and in everyday life</li> <li>• explain someone directions, navigate a building or a city</li> <li>• describe daily activities</li> <li>• explain eating habits</li> <li>• describe instructions for work and ask for explanations</li> </ul>
Course Category	Hybrid course: the interactive lectures are given online and/or on site and Helsinki and Vaasa students can participate online or on site.
Pre-requisites	5213 A - Français I A - Travailler en français en entreprise 1 A, CEFR level A 1.1 or equivalent course.
Total Student Workload	80 hours divided in:  scheduled contact hours (face-to-face / online learning): 56 hours non-scheduled work (self-learning / assignment): 24 hours
Instruction	The course is hybrid type; traditional classroom methods on site or/and online combined and aligned with digital self-learning elements that are done outside the classroom at a time that suits the student.  The attendance to the lecture (on site or online) is not mandatory but highly recommended and part of the assessment (Commitment).
Literature and Course Material	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Online courses guidelines and exercises in Moodle</li> <li>• Online assignments</li> <li>• Online quizzes</li> </ul>
Assessment	Examinations: 60 % / Ongoing activities: 40 %  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2 written examinations: 15 % each (30 %)</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2 oral examinations (1. Comprehension / 2. Interaction): 15 % each (30 %)</li> </ul> Oral and written examinations during the last week of courses for each period, re-take earlier than four weeks after the first exam. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Commitment: 15%</li> <li>• Home assignments: 10% (10 homework)</li> <li>• Weekly quizzes: 10 % (10 quizzes)</li> <li>• Course feedback: 5 %</li> </ul>
Recommended Time of Performance	Hanken students can take this course simultaneously with the self-study module 5213-B-2, or separately. Arcada students must take this course simultaneously with 5213-B-2.
Non-degree studies (Open University, JOO and Contract Studies)	Quota for Open University students: 3 Quota for JOO students: 3
Additional Information	The course is open to Helsinki and Vaasa students. Group 1 is for first year students. Group 2 for second year students and outside Hanken students (self-enrolment). Arcada students and Hanken students who aim a Minor in French business communication should take this course simultaneously with 5213-B-2 (2 study points).